

Tarn Moor Memorial Woodland

DATA PROTECTION AND PRIVACY POLICY

At Tarn Moor Memorial Woodland, we consider the privacy of our customers to be extremely important.

This Data and Privacy Policy (Privacy Policy) governs the manner in which Tarn Moor Memorial Woodland collects, uses, maintains and discloses information collected from our customers. This Privacy Policy applies to all services offered by Tarn Moor Memorial Woodland.

This Privacy Policy applies to your Personal data.

Personal Data

Tarn Moor Memorial Woodland collects information/Personal Data about you when you pre-purchase a burial or cremated remains plot, liaise with us to arrange a burial of a relative, have their cremated remains buried or scattered, or their name engraved on our memorial stones.

Depending on the services, customers may be asked for, as appropriate, name, postal address, email address and telephone numbers.

We will collect personal identification information from customers only if they voluntarily submit such information to us, Customers can always refuse to supply personal identification information.

Our contact

We communicate with you either via post, email or telephone and customers can choose which they prefer.

How do we retain personal data?

We retain personal data for the least amount of time necessary to fulfil our legal or regulatory obligations and for our business purposes.

How we process the information

We may process your personal data for the following reasons

To operate the site and provide the services, including to:
Communicate with you about your burial plot, the site, the services
To comply with our obligations and to enforce the terms & conditions of our site, including to comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

For our legitimate interests, including to:
Enforce the terms of our site and services
Manage our everyday business needs.

How do we protect your information

We adopt appropriate data collection, storage and processing practices and security measures to protect against unauthorised access, alteration, disclosure or destruction of your personal information.

Sharing your personal information

We do not sell, trade or rent customers personal identification information to others. We may share information about you with other parties for business purposes or as permitted or required by law, including:

If we are required to do so to comply with a law, legal process or regulations.

To law enforcement authorities or other government officials, or other third parties pursuant to a subpoena, a court order or other legal process requirements.

If we believe, in our sole discretion, that the disclosure of personal data is necessary or appropriate to prevent physical harm or financial loss in connection with an investigation of suspected or actual illegal activity.

In case of payment disputes, claims, chargebacks we may be required to disclose information about you as requested to do so by payment providers and other authorities or parties.

To help assess and manage risk and prevent fraud against us, our customers and fraud involving our site or use of our services to parties that we plan to merge with or be acquired by; and to support our audit, compliance and corporate governance functions.

Changes to this Data Protection Privacy Policy

Tarn Moor Memorial Woodland has the discretion to update this Data Protection Privacy Policy at any time. When we do, we will revise the "last edited" date at the bottom of this page. We encourage customers to frequently check this page for any changes to stay informed about how we are helping to protect the personal information we collect. It is your responsibility to review this privacy policy periodically and become aware of any modifications.

Get in touch with us

If you have any questions regarding this Data Protection Privacy Policy then please contact us at enquiries@tarnmoor.co.uk

Last edited May 2018