Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 23rd instant I am to direct your attention to Clause 3 of the Scheme of the 25th September, 1934 and to explain that the land comprised in the Scheme has now ceased to form the endowment of a Charity under the jurisdiction of the Commissioners and that their consent to a sale of any part of the land is the refore not now required.

The Trustees should communicate their proposals to the Ministry of Health.

The plan of the proposed lay-out of the land is returned herewith and I am to ask that its receipt may be acknowledged.

I am, sir,

Your obedient servant.
